2. TECHNICAL BASIS

2.1 The European Cup justifies its existence by the organization of all the current event

2.2 Creation of new Competitions

Non traditional international competitions organised by other European countries will also be taken into account, providing more than five nations participate

2.2.1 The events shot must comply with the official ISSF programme, and their technical rules must be in harmony with those of the European Cup

2.2.2 All European countries must be invited to participate

2.3 Allocation of Points

All these European Cup, providing, for men, at least minimum 5 nations entered 4 weeks before (dead line), for women minimum 3 nations entered, allot points in relation to the place and the result obtained by the shooter and in accordance with a pre-determined scale

2.4 Exceptional competitions

European and World Championship will also be taken into consideration, in the year in which they are held

2.5 Criteria for allocation of points

Every above-mentioned competition allots points according as follows:

2.5.1 Results obtained in the final match according to the SLIDING SCALE

2.5.2 Performance achieved in the eliminations or final match (best score)

2.6 Participation

All ESC member federations may participate in the European Cup and gain points, providing that they are not in excess of the number of participant determined by the protocol of the organizers (refer to 3.2 «Teams and Individuals»). Non European shooters, or supernumeraries, may be invited. At competitions with eliminations these participants in the final match cannot take part. They are considered non-competitive for the allocation of points, but are ranked normally otherwise in the list of results

2.7 Final event

The Final of the European Cup is the organization of a Final which will bring together the best European shooters and the designation of a winner in each discipline.

2.8 Judges and Sub Committee members

One judge with a minimum ISSF B license must be present at each European Cup. This and other judges may be proposed by any visiting nation. The cost of accommodation and food for one judge will be covered by the organizer
For the Final, see point 7.7

2.8.1 A member of the Subcommittee or the 300m Supervisor ESC possibly should be present at every European Cup. Their expenses have to be paid by the nation of the Subcommittee member or by the nation of the Supervisor

2.8.2 The Subcommittee member shall also fulfil the task of supervising the competition and reporting to the 300m Sub committee

3. HARMONIZATION OF PROGRAMMES

3.1. Specificity

The Harmonization of programmes was carried out in 1990, by those responsible for a Europe Cup at that time, during their various coordination meetings. The European Cup shooting programmes must comply with ISSF specifications, with regard to both technical rules and composition.

3.1.1 Men disciplines: 60 shots prone, 3 Positions, Standard Rifle 3 Positions

3.1.2 Women disciplines 60 shots prone and 3 Positions

3.1.3 Team: 3 members in each event

3.2 Teams and Individuals

Nations participating in a European Cup, are allowed to enter, as individuals, 8 Men and 6 Women shooters. These shooters must be in the possession of an ISSF ID-number. Per event 5 shooters and 1 team can be employed and only these 5 shooters for Men and Women count to get points in the European Cup

3.3 Entry Fees

3.3.1 The Entry Fees for all European Cup are € 90 per shooter and per events which includes the amounts of € 5 to the ESC, and € 10 for administration of the final (entry fees including the taxes counts also for unofficial participation)

3.3.2 The nation fees on 3 and more shooters are 90 € and you reduce proportionally (I.E.: one shooter 30 € – 2 shooters 60)

3.3.3 For the Final European Cup, the Entry Fees are 130 € per shooters and per discipline, including € 5 to the ESC, and doping control will be required to comply with ISSF regulations

3.4 Targets facilities

3.4.1 For the Final minimum 22 lanes are necessary

3.4.2 So that the competition does not last too long for the shooters (specialists), the competition days could look as follows:

1st day: PET Eliminations prone Men, Official Training Women, Eliminations prone Men, Qualification Prone Women

2nd day: Qualification Prone Men, Qualification 3-Position Women
PET Eliminations 3-Position Men, Victory Ceremony

3rd day: Eliminations 3 position men,

4th day: Qualification 3 position men, PET Standard Rifle 3-Position Men

5th day: Eliminations and Qualification Standard Rifle 3-Position Men

3.4.3 Sufficient target supply should result in of less elimination so; the competition duration maybe correspondingly shortened

3.4.4 300m Cup Final must be shot on Electronic Targets

4. CALENDAR

4.1 The calendar, left to the initiative of the organizers will take care, in so far as possible, to avoid overlap of 50 m Olympic and 300 m ISSF events

4.2 It will be widely circulated in Europe, as early as possible in the current year, so as to permit nations participating in the various European Cup to plan accordingly

5. ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

5.1 Definition

All decisions on activities and organisation of the European Cup will be taken by the elected Subcommittee. These decisions will be by a majority vote should that be deemed necessary

5.1.1 This committee is composed of a Chairman and maximum of four committee members, one of which will be selected by the Technical committee ESC.

5.1.2 The ESC- Presidium appointed one 300m Supervisor, who should act as an observer and supervisor

5.1.3 The ESC presidium will elect the committee for a period of four years

5.2 Chairmanship

On a voluntary basis and as a result of a vote by the elected committee members. This election is according to ESC general regulation

5.3 Secretary ship

One of the members in the committee will act as a secretary. This will include:

- a) Bringing the results up to date
- b) Reports of assemblies
- c) Continuous administration
- d) Communication of information relating to European Cup
- e) Connection between different members of the committee
- f) Relations with ESC and ISSF

5.4 Meetings of the Sub Committee

At least once per year a meeting must be held, and if it is necessary the chairman has the right to call for other meetings if special circumstances are arise.

5.4.1 One must always be called before the General Assembly during the final

5.5 Meetings of the participating Nations

The meetings of the participating nations are organized during one European Cup and the General Assembly will be held during the European Cup Final

5.6 Working of the Secretariat

5.6.1 In order to ensure maximum efficiency of the Secretariat, organizers of European Cups are requested to send details as soon as possible to the Secretariat:

5.6.2 All information's related to this European Cup

5.6.3 The list of results at the end of the organization

5.6.4 In return: the secretariat will keep the participating nations informed on the evolution in ranking for the European Cup

5.6.5 Communication within the European Cup group must be a priority, and be recognized as such by each committee member. In so far as possible the Secretariat will redistribute all information's to the committee members, should it be impossible for them to do so themselves

5.7 Special decisions

The 300m Sub Committee can decide about any situations that are not covered by the rules.

6. SCALES OF POINTS

6.1 Scale // Place

See Annexe for performance and sliding scale

6.2 European Cup: Emulative points

If a shooter enters several European Cups, only the two best European Cup results will be taken in account.

6.3 Cumulating

Getting points on the 2 scales (performance and place) is cumulative. Consequently, a shooter can acquire a maximum of 30 points for one competition.

7. EUROPEAN CUP FINAL

7.1 Definition

The end of the European Cup is the designation of a winner in the different 5 events at 300 m, at the end of a final match. The final match takes place at the end of all the European Cups one of the great events of the season

7.1.1 Every European nation can claim to organize the final providing its range ability makes it possible. They must give proof of its organizing capacity for international shooting events

7.1.2 European Cup organizing nations will have priority

7.1.3 The European Cup executive committee decides the allocation of the final. The committee must take care not to wrong any finalist by its choice

- 7.1.4 The organizing nation chooses location and date
- 7.1.5 Number of participants – Invitation
- 7.1.5.1 A maximum of international shooters will enter this final which should be a shooting festivity, and above all not a restricted one
- 7.1.5.2 The number of participants per event will be 20 shooters including the winner of the last year (exception 7.3 and 7.4)
- 7.1.5.3 These shooters are selected for the final by their national Federation, which will have received the invitation from the secretariat
- 7.1.5.4 The number of participants selected for the final cannot exceed the number of shooters who have won their qualification points on the ranking scale
- 7.2 Conditions for participation
The finalists will be invited to participate in the EC Final, subject to the agreement of their National Association
- 7.2.1 For the final, the participants in each event will be as follows:
- 7.2.2 The winners of each European Cup
- 7.2.3 Those ranked highest on the list of points according to article 2.4 after all the European Cups have taken place
- 7.2.4 The winner of the European Cup Final of the last year
- 7.2.5 One guest, from countries organizing a European Cup or a European Cup Final but with no shooter in the final ranking. If the stand capacity of the organizer allows it, these shooters can be invited in addition to the 20 finalists and will be designated by his National team Manager.
- 7.2.6 Results out of Competition (unofficial participation), do not count
- 7.2.7 The designation is made by the committee in coordination, with, the organising country
- 7.2.8 If one shooter selected for the final cannot participate, his place will be given to the next shooters on the ranking list. (In the same event)
- 7.3 In case of tied scores (equal)
- 7.3.1 All tied shooters are qualified for the final, provided that it allows the stand capacity of the organizer.
- 7.3.2 On the contrary case, no tying shooter will qualify (in according 7.2.2)
- 7.4 Non European shooters
- 7.4.1 Non European shooters may be invited to this event, providing that the range capacity of the organizing country makes this possible
- 7.4.2 They do not appear on the final list of results
- 7.4.3 They are the responsibility of the organizing club (or country)
- 7.5 Program
In order to be attractive and undemanding in relation to the availability of everyone (shooters, managers, and organizers), the programme should be short and could be based on the following model:

1st day

Morning:	Training and Equipment control
Afternoon:	300m rifle Prone – Women and Men Training 300m rifle 3 Positions

2nd day

2. TECHNICAL RULES

At the conclusion of each European Cup Final a Super final will be held according to the following rules:

2.1 Qualification

The winners and second place holders from each of the following competitions qualify for a place in the Super Final. Prone men; three position men; standard rifle men; prone women; three position women. Normally ten shooters will take part in the Super Final.

If an eligible shooter does not take his/her place in the Super Final the next shooter on the relevant list take the place.

2.2. Multiple qualifiers

For shooters who qualify in more than one discipline the Super Final qualification will be only the first discipline. The shooter next in the ranking list of the next discipline(s) will be invited to shoot in the super final

2.3 Maximum Score equality

According to ISSF rules equal maximum scores cannot be broken and each shooter is qualified in first place. For the purpose of the Super Final if three or more shooters qualify with maximum scores then the ties will be broken by reference to inner tens. If the number of inner tens cannot not to be broken, then a "Shoot-off" will decide.

The shoot off will be over 5 shots evaluated out of 100 per shot. After these 5 shots ties will be broken by a shot for shot shoot off.

2.4 Allocation of firing points

The random allocation of firing points may be done either by the drawing of lots or with a computer program suitable for the purpose. The allocation will be supervised by the Technical Delegate.

2.5 Scoring

The scoring will be done electronically with each shot evaluated out of 100. This means that a 10.9 will be scored as 100, a 10.5 as 96 and so on. All totals are carried forward to the next shot.

2.6 Shooting position

The Super Final is shot in the prone position

2.7 Prize monies

Every participant in the Super Final will receive prize money. In all European Cup competitions ten euros per start will be paid into a separate Fund. This fund may be used by the sub committee for administration and the provision of trophies for the final and Super Final. The remaining sum will be used to provide graded prize monies for the Super Final shooters

3. Programme

The shooting programme will follow the ISSF rules in relation to the Olympic prone rifle final. See section 6.16 of the ISSF Rulebook.

4. Competition

All shooters will fire their first three shots on command as per paragraph 3 above. After the third competition shot the shooter with the lowest total retires This sequence continues on a shot by shot basis until the winner is determined. If there is equality at any stage then there will be a Shoot-off to determine who will retire.
